

Editorial Statement

The editorial team of Journal of Portuguese Linguistics is extremely grateful to João Costa and Clara Correia for their editorial work. From this issue onwards, they are no longer part of the team at their own request, but we are certain that they will stay involved with the Journal in many respects.

The present issue not only pursues the series of guest-edited thematic volumes initiated with Vol. 1-2, but also revives the Book Review and Dissertation Abstracts sections.

The Journal is sponsored by the Departamento de Linguística Geral e Românica of the Universidade de Lisboa and FCT-Fundação para a Ciência e a Tecnologia.
